Hutchison Secures Funds For Rail Study

U.S. Sen. Kay Bailey Hutchison, R-Texas, announced that $285,000 has been secured for a feasibility study on expanding and improving intercity passenger rail service in East Texas.

The Fiscal Year 2009 Omnibus Appropriations bill includes funding to investigate the economic benefits of integrating the region into a planned Dallas-Fort Worth rail system.

The East Texas Corridor Council will use the funding to conduct a high-speed rail feasibility study to evaluate the potential integration of East Texas into the urban regional rail system.

"This funding is an important step in making that goal a reality," Ms. Hutchison said in the statement.
